"Children's rights in Malaysia have significantly progressed since Malaysia acceded to the Convention on The Rights of The Child (CRC), in 1995 and introduced the Child Act in 2001. Many initiatives to realize and uphold the rights of children have been advanced by both government and civil society. Considerable progress has, for example, been achieved in the field of education and primary healthcare for children."

a) Discuss how CRC can help in improving the rights of children in Malaysia.

(12 marks)

b) Critically analyse the reservations made by Malaysia on some of the Articles under CRC.

QUESTION 5

“Theories of human rights over the past half-century have broadly appeared to perpetuate a rigid dichotomy between a universalistic conception of human rights and a relativistic approach. The former so-called “Western” model has been accused of advocating an individualistic approach to rights that prioritises the individual’s rights against society; by contrast, the “Asian values” approach emphasises social stability, privileging community and duties over the rights of the individual.”

(Tew.Y., 2012)

Discuss.
